

Language Access Fellow

akpirg.org

Dates: Applications open until position is filled, interviews on a rolling basis

Employer: Alaska Public Interest Research Group (AKPIRG)

Contact: Camilla Hussein-Scott, Operations Manager, camilla@akpirg.org

Compensation: $25/hour and paid UA language class tuition for Spring '24 Semester or $30/hour

Hours: 5-20 Hours/Week, December thru end of March 2024.

Location: Anywhere in Alaska (available to travel to Anchorage for February 2024 gathering - 2/18-2/25, travel included)

Organization Description: The Alaska Public Interest Research Group's work is to advocate, educate, and research to support Alaskan communities. Broadly, AKPIRG works across four specializations: energy affordability, economic justice, good government, and language access. The Language Access Team is a department of AKPIRG that uplifts and creates opportunities for language accessibility.

Core Responsibilities:

- Assisting in the preparation, planning, and execution of an in-person Language gathering in February 2024
- Building up AKPIRG's Alaska Native Language panels.
- Coordinating travel and lodging arrangements for language panelists.
- Helping identify key informational materials, such as fact sheets and glossary terms, to be translated by language panelists
- Event planning support.
- Implementing AKPIRG's Alaska Native Language Translation Protocols.
- Working with AKPIRG communications team to share information about language events.

Qualifications:

A strong applicant will have connection to and knowledge of Alaska Native cultures and languages and experience working with Elders. Strong written and oral communication and organizational skills. Additionally, must be aligned with AKPIRG's work and values (justice, trust, accountability, and community), be able to work within dynamic teams, and be self motivated with care and attention to detail.

For more information or to apply, please send a resume, writing sample, and two references to camilla@akpirg.org.

Black, Indigenous, People of Color, single parents, trans and gender-expansive people, and people with disabilities who identify as Alaskan are encouraged to apply.